

CONSENT/RELEASE AND WAIVER

(this form is invalid without the checklist on the reverse side)

In consideration of the granting of permission to enter upon premises known as the Greenville Saltpeter Caves located off of Laurel Creek Road in Greenville, West Virginia and owned by The Institute for Earth Education, for the purpose of exploring underground holes, caves, crevices, and passageways, the undersigned acknowledges that such exploration may be inherently dangerous and assumes all risk, known and unknown, which may arise from such exploration and hereby waives any and all losses, claims, or liabilities which may occur to person or property while engaged in such exploration and further do hereby release and hold harmless the owner, The Institute for Earth Education Inc., agents and employees from such claims or liabilities. I further bind myself, my heirs, assigns or personal representatives to repay the owner any sum of money (including, but not limited to, fees of attorneys and expert witnesses) that owner might reasonably expend in the avoidance or defense of any manner of claim arising in any way from my presence upon owner's premises (save and except willful malicious acts or omissions).

I have read the "yes" and "no" checklists on the reverse side and will abide by those stipulations.

In WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has hereto voluntarily affixed his or her signature (under age 18 requires parent/guardian to sign).
